Cajon Valley Union School District
2011-13 District Student Achievement Plan
LEA Plan reflecting Essential Program Components (EPCs) for Corrective Action for Cohort IV

The entire LEA Plan is framed under the District's commitment to the Essential Program Components (EPCs). The following is an analysis of the current implementation of the EPCs:

Nine Essential Program Components

1. Use of standards-based State Board of Education (SBE)-adopted (kindergarten through grade eight) or standards-aligned (grade nine through twelve) English/reading/language arts and mathematics instructional materials, including intensive interventions and * English Language Development materials.

2. Implementation of instructional periods for basic core Reading/Language Arts and mathematics programs, intensive intervention and strategic support courses as well as additional instructional time for structured English Language Development at all grade levels.

   The Cajon Valley Union School District (CVUSD) meets or exceeds the allocation of minutes for the courses defined by State Frameworks in ELA and mathematics. Elementary teachers will implement planned and protected Universal Access (UA) time to help benchmark and strategic students, including English learners (EL) and students with disabilities (SWD), to access the core curriculum. Middle schools will revise master schedules to allow for additional time to support strategic students' access to the core curriculum. Instructional minutes in elementary and middle schools will include a minimum of 30 minutes of English language development (ELD) daily. Sites will ensure that 4-8 students two or more years below grade in ELA will have time allocated according to State Frameworks for intensive students.

3. Use of an annual district instructional/assessment pacing guide for grades K-8 and high school.

   CVUSD teachers and administrators work collaboratively each summer to revise pacing guides and benchmark assessments in ELA and math. Pacing guides are designed to include recommended pacing, an assessment window, strategies for aligning instruction on Focus Standards, and key vocabulary. Pacing guides are also interactive and include quick links to CST released questions so teachers can quickly identify testing format and the level of rigor of assessments. This summer pacing guides will be revised and new ELA assessments that align to the pacing guides and to State standards will be developed to provide a coherent and aligned, standards-based curriculum, instruction, and assessment system. ELA pacing guides will ensure all students take benchmark assessments at the same time to enable districtwide and schoolwide data analysis and instructional planning.

   Math pacing guides and benchmarks were revised this year and provide a coherent and aligned, standards-based curriculum, instruction, and assessment system. Math benchmarks and assessments will be revised again next summer so all students take benchmark assessments at the same take to enable districtwide and schoolwide data analysis and instructional planning.

4. Implementation of School Administrator Instructional Leadership Training Program- Instructional materials based professional development and Implementation of School Administrator Instructional Leadership Training Program- Instructional materials based professional development and ongoing targeted professional development and support for instructional leaders to ensure the full implementation of the district adopted program and the EPCs ongoing targeted professional development and support for instructional leaders to ensure the full implementation of the district adopted program and the EPCs

   Of the 32 site administrators within the CVUSD, 30 have been trained (94%) in SBE ELA and math aligned programs. The remaining two site administrators will begin training in fall of 2011.

5. Fully credentialed, highly qualified teachers, per the requirements of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) and professional development on SBE-adopted instructional materials.

   Highly Qualified Teachers: All classrooms are staffed with fully credentialed, highly qualified teachers per the requirements of the ESEA. Requirements for No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Teacher Compliance: Teachers of core academic subjects must have: a bachelor's degree; hold an appropriate credential or intern certificate (must be currently enrolled in an approved California Commission on Teacher Credentialing [CCTC] intern program); and demonstrate subject matter competence.

   The school/ district also validates that each teacher completes an 80-hour structured practicum based on the implementation of the instructional materials and the EPCs.

   The CVUSD worked diligently to meet the Highly Qualified Teachers (HQT) expectations established by the Elementary and Secondary Education Act under No Child Left Behind. As of 2007, 95.35% of teachers were HQT, with 91.23% in 2008 and 97.29% in 2009. In 2010, 98.68% were HQT. It is expected in 2011, that 98.92% will be HQT.

6. Implementation of ongoing instructional assistance and support for R/LA, ELD and mathematics teachers through the use of content experts, specialists, and instructional coaches.

   The schools/district provide instructional assistance and ongoing support to all teachers of Reading/Language Arts/ELD and mathematics. Specifically, elementary, middle, and ninth and tenth grade Reading/Language Arts, intensive reading intervention, K-7 mathematics, Algebra 1, Algebra Readiness and Algebra strategic support teachers receive ongoing support offered by the school and district. Possible options for providing support include trained coaches, content experts, and specialists who are knowledgeable about the adopted program, and work inside the classrooms to support teachers and deepen their knowledge about the content and the delivery of instruction.

   All CVUSD teachers and administrators have completed three full days of training on the Teach for Success (T4S) protocol provided by WestEd. T4S is a research-based program designed around high quality instructional practices. All core replacement teachers have attended the intensive training on the CDE approved core replacement programs. The teachers of mathematics have completed the SB 472 Math Professional Development Institute for the most current math adoptions. The current focus for professional development in CVUSD is standards-based instruction in English-language arts and English Language Development. Ongoing professional development and coaching for principals will continue to focus on strategies to help principals provide support and coaching to teachers districtwide on the T4S protocol and strategies to support EL and SWD.

7. For all grade levels, implementation of a student achievement monitoring system that provides timely data from common formative and curriculum-embedded and summative assessments for teachers and principals to use to monitor ongoing student progress, identify student needs, inform instruction and determine effectiveness of instructional practices and implementation of the adopted programs.

The district uses an ongoing assessment and monitoring system, OARS (Online Assessment and Reporting System), that provides timely data from common assessments based on the SBE-adopted ELA/ELD and mathematics basic core and intensive intervention programs. Student achievement results from assessments (i.e., entry-levels placement and/or diagnostic; progress monitoring, including frequent formative and curriculum-embedded; and summative assessments) are used to inform teachers and principals on student placement, diagnosis, progress, and effectiveness of instruction. Revised pacing guides will provide a coherent and aligned, standards-based curriculum, instruction, and assessment system.

8. Implementation of monthly structured teacher collaboration for all RLA/ELD and mathematics teachers by grade department levels (9-12) are facilitated by the principal.

The school/district facilitates and supports a one-hour structured collaboration meeting (preferably two) per month in order for all teachers of reading and language arts and mathematics, including strategic and intensive intervention, special education, and ELD teachers to analyze, discuss, and utilize the results of the school/district assessment system to guide student placement, instructional planning and delivery, and progress monitoring, within the SBE-adopted RLA/ELD and mathematics programs.

CVUSD teachers and administrators meet after each benchmark assessment to review and analyze data and to determine next steps for instruction and differentiated strategic intervention. The DAIT plan will add structure and provide coaching to assist with data analysis and instructional planning.

9. Implementation of Fiscal Support aligned to full implementation of EPCs.

The school/district's general and categorical funds are coordinated, prioritized, and allocated to align with the full implementation of the EPCs in RLA/ELD, mathematics, and the Single Plan for Student Achievement (SPSA).

During the needs assessment, the District Assistance and Intervention Team (DAIT) completed the District Assistance Survey (DAS) and determined the distribution of fiscal resources was not in question.
Analyze Student Performance Data

API, AYP and STAR Reports – Information extracted from the California Department of Education's Testing and Accountability website, http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta, demonstrates state, county and district trends in API Growth and proficiency level performance of STAR data results as well as AYP Accountability reporting.

5-Year API Growth Comparison - Overall
District-wide data for the Cajon Valley Union School District has demonstrated a net increase of 26 points in API Growth over the last five years. Although below the median API for San Diego County, the Cajon Valley Union District has exceeded the state's API Growth figure by an average of 28 points over the five years.

☐ Cajon Valley District	668	668	677	700	691
■ State	641	646	662	677	692

After a general trend of maintaining or increasing API Growth figures in the English Learner (EL) population, Cajon Valley Union School District experienced a decline of 9 points in 2010. After four years of exceeding the state's API Growth figure by an average of 22 points, the API Growth figure for the EL population dropped to one point below that of the state. API targets for meeting the Annual Measurable Objective for AYP have been met each year.

5-Year API Growth Comparison - Students with Disabilities (SWD)

After three years of remaining relatively stable and consistent with state API Growth figures in the Students with Disabilities population, Cajon Valley Union School District jumped ahead of state figures significantly over the last two years: 70 points in 2009 and 47 points in 2010. Despite these gains, the API Growth figures did not meet the API target of 650 (for 2009) and 680 (for 2010).

4-Year AYP Comparison for ELA - Overall

State	45.5%	48.2%	52.0%	53.9%
Annual Measurable Objective	24.4%	35.2%	46.0%	56.8%	67.6%

Cajon Valley maintained a consistent pattern of overall AYP advanced/proficient performance in English Language Arts during the three-year period of 2007 through 2009, closely paralleling the scores of districts throughout San Diego County. Both the county and the district scores were somewhat higher than state levels for that same period and exceeded the AMO for ELA. However, in 2010, while state and county scores showed a slight increase, those of Cajon Valley decreased slightly and, as a result, dropped below the AMO benchmark for 2010.

The same trend exists in mathematics during the period of 2007 to 2009, although Cajon Valley's performance more closely aligns with state scores in being higher than county scores. In 2010, however, Cajon Valley lost ground slightly when compared to county scores. County AYP scores showed growth of 6 points, the state gained 2.1 percentage points, and the district had a slight increase of 1.3 points.

4-Year AYP Comparison for ELA - English Learner (EL) and Students with Disabilities (SWD)
	2007	2008	2009	2010	2011

AMO	24.4%	35.2%	46.0%	56.8%	67.6%

When disaggregating into subgroups, one finds the pattern of AYP percent Advanced/Proficient of English Learners (EL) in Cajon Valley closely aligns with that of the state. The trend shifted slightly in 2010 when the AYP of EL's in the district dropped while that of the state increased. After a period of being slightly lower than the state AYP, the Students with Disabilities (SWD) subgroup showed a significant increase in AYP in 2009 by nearly doubling the number of students scoring Advanced/Proficient from the previous year –the result of the introduction of the California Modified Assessment into the STAR program. This net increase for the district SWD population was three times the increase experienced by the state in 2009. Both subgroups' AYP scores do not meet the AMO target in 2010.

Many of the same observations noted in the analysis of the English Language Arts AYP performance for the EL and SWD populations are mirrored in mathematics. Three exceptions to note are:

- District EL performance has historically been slightly below that of the state in mathematics
- The gain in the district's SWD scores in mathematics was not as dramatic as in ELA in 2009
- While the state shows relatively steady and consistent gains in SWD scores throughout the 4-year period, the district, after an increase in 2009, showed no gain in 2010.

Two additional subgroups are added to the 4-year AYP comparison charts: the Hispanic/Latino and Socioeconomically Disadvantaged (SED) students. Of the district-wide scores and 4 subgroups' data captured in this comparison, the Hispanic/Latino population is the only subgroup showing a pattern of consistent increase, although not sufficient to meet the AMO percent Advanced/Proficient target for ELA in 2009.

In mathematics, the Hispanic/Latino, and SED AYP percent Advanced/Proficient parallel each other closely, following the pattern seen in the EL population. One thing to note here is that AYP Advanced/Proficient percentages for all groups and district-wide either maintained or gained slightly in 2010 with the greatest gain (2.3 points) realized in the Hispanic/Latino population.

A review of 2010 STAR data reflects a higher percentage of Hispanic/Latino students meeting the Advanced/Proficient performance levels in ELA, followed by the SWD and SED populations. The smallest percentage of students scoring advanced/proficient is found in the EL population - 22 points below the district percentages for those performance levels. Predictably, the EL population also has the greatest percentage of students in the Below Basic and Far Below Basic performance levels.

2010 STAR mathematics data shows similar performance for the Hispanic/Latino students, followed by SED scores. In mathematics, however, the percentage of EL students who scored Advanced/Proficient was higher than those of the SWD population; likewise, a smaller percentage of EL student scores were in the Below Basic and Far Below Basic categories.

Analysis of Data for English Learners

The following table shows that for the last two years, the CVUSD has met the annual targets for the Annual Measurable Achievement Objective (AMAO) 1 (Percentage of students making annual progress in learning English), and the AMAO 2 (Percentage of students attaining the English proficient level on the CELDT). CVUSD has not met AMAO 3- (Adequate yearly progress for the EL subgroup at the district level in the areas of English language arts and mathematics) for two consecutive years.

The next table shows a correlation of the CELDT language performance levels to the CST performance levels in the area of ELA indicates that 44.25% of students who test at the Intermediate level of the CELDT also score Basic level or above on the ELA CST. Further disaggregation of this data shows that 6% of students in the Intermediate group score at the Proficient or Advanced level and 36% score at the Below Basic level.

Further disaggregation of this data shows that 30% of students in the Intermediate group score at the Proficient or Advanced level and 30% score at the Below Basic level.

The following table shows that 31% of the CVUSD's EL scored at the Intermediate language performance level. Out of this group, 46.61% met the annual progress target on the CELDT, as per AMAO 1 (gained one language performance level in a year or, if English Proficient, they maintained their level.). However, the Intermediate group, as well as the Beginning group, did not meet the annual growth target of 53.1% required by the state. Students scoring at the Early Intermediate, Early Advanced, and Advanced language levels met, and exceeded, the AMAO 1 target (53.1%). Additionally, 4 out of the 5 language performance bands exceeded the state average performance.

According to the expectations established by the Title III AMAOs, EL in CVUSD are not progressing at the accelerated rate that has been established by the state (making targets for annual progress and meeting English proficiency after 5 years):
- 82.17% of students who have been in a US school for 4 years or more are scoring at the Intermediate level or below.
- 77.61% of students who have been in a US school for 5 years or more are scoring at the Intermediate level or below.
- 57.39% of students who have been in a US school for 6 years or more are scoring at the Intermediate level or below.

Summary

The recommended CDE self-assessment tools were used to evaluate the factors and concerns needed to support academic student achievement:

- The Academic Program Survey (APS) – school-level survey of status of implementation of the nine essential program components
- District Assistance Survey (DAS) – district-level survey of status of implementation of nine essential program components
- Least Restrictive Environment Assessment (LRE) – to examine educational practices for students with disabilities.
- English Learner Subgroup Self Assessment (ELSA) – to improve outcomes for English Learners

4.1   District stakeholders collaborated with the DAIT Team from WestEd to conduct a thorough self-assessment using the tools listed above. The team also completed a through analysis of student performance data. The self-assessment indicated that Cajon Valley Union School District Governance, Fiscal Operations, Human Resources, and Informed and Involved Parents and Community are in place and aligned to support a comprehensive reform effort. During the past three years, intensive professional development around research-based instructional practices included in the WestEd T4S protocol has been provided to all teachers and administrators with promising results. Data gathered from all CVUSD classrooms indicate strong gains in communication and design of instructional objectives, increasing student engagement, providing instructional scaffolding, and emphasizing vocabulary development. To ensure continued growth, professional development will continue and be differentiated as determined by observational data. Additionally, 98.92% of CVUSD meet the requirements of NCLB HQT. Teachers not yet meeting HQT have an established plan and timeline in place to meet HQT requirements. As defined by the State, there are no schools in CVUSD defined as persistently dangerous.

As identified in the analysis of data, EL and SWD continue to score below other significant subgroups. To address this need, the English Learner Master Plan was revised this year to include the following:

- Defined criteria for placement of EL students with CELDT levels one through five
- Instructional program offerings that include structured English immersion, English mainstream and alternative programs (upon parent request).
- Support services for implementation of ELD and Specifically Designed Academic Instruction in English (SDAIE) strategies, CDE approved materials, and monitoring and evaluation of student progress
- Reclassification process that enables EL students to exit specialized programs and services for EL
- Standardized instructional pacing and assessment guides for ELA, ELD, Math, and core-replacement courses
- Implementation of ELD curriculum and standardized time allotments evident at most schools
- Newcomer classes for students in the US less than 1 year implemented at sites with large populations of newcomer students
- Additional staff hired to provide extra support for students and families
- Quality professional development provided for cultural awareness, SDAIE strategies, Transference of Skills, ELD standards-based instruction, academic language, and effective teaching strategies for all teachers of EL

To ensure the needs of EL and SWD are met the LEA plan includes:

- Professional development to ensure teachers of ELs have the skills to develop the academic discourse skills of English learners, to support the development of language functions and forms, and how to align ELD instruction to support ELA instruction.
- Implementation of effective English learner research-based strategies to enhance access to the core
- Improved Tier II and III support for students, including EL and SWD, in grades 4-8
- Increased attention given to language acquisition and development outside the designated ELD instructional period
- Increased focused and consistent collaboration that includes attention to EL linguistic and academic needs
- Appropriate student placement for core and ELD instruction clearly defined, implemented and closely monitored
- Separate times for strategic instruction, UA, and ELD for all underperforming students, including EL and SWD
- Implementation of the Catch-up Plan identified in the Master Plan for English Learners
- Consistent implementation of reclassification criteria
- A system to monitor and the implementation of strategies learned during professional development

Based on the needs assessment and the recommendation of the DAIT Team from WestEd, the following areas will be the focus of the District Plan:

- Establish accountability requirements and systems to ensure implementation of the LEA Plan.
- Provide a coherent and aligned, standards-based curriculum, instruction, and assessment system.
- Implement Response to Intervention to ensure that all students, especially EL, SWD, and other high priority students, have access to the core curriculum and, based on assessed need, strategic interventions, and SBE-adopted intensive interventions.
- Ensure ELs receive a minimum of 30 minutes of ELD each day using SBE-approved curriculum, and that teachers have the training necessary to ensure that EL have access to the core curriculum.
